Since 1999, the #1 Motorcycling Resource for Women and the Men Who Ride With Them

December 10, 2020

Hello to all our new and regular subscribers. This newsletter is our way of saying “hi” and letting you know about recent stories posted on our website, WomenRidersNow.com (WRN).

I can't believe the holidays are already upon us. With times being tight for so many, we are grateful to be able to offer generous discounts for all budgets in our Holiday Guide. Many of the companies represented are women-owned small businesses, so you're helping others while getting a little “retail therapy” for yourselves. We think it's a win-win, so please let your friends and family know too.

And I don't know about you, but I'm ready to leave 2020 in the books and move forward to brighter days in 2021. Is there a new ride or event for you next year? Maybe even a new bike? Check out WRN's Sarah Schilke and Tricia Szulewski's take on the Indian V-twin roadster, the FTR 1200. These two have decades of experience with almost every motorcycle manufacturer out there, and they are excited to share their observations with you.

On a very personal note, Sarah and I also want to wrap up 2020 by telling you how grateful we are for you, our readers and subscribers. We joined WRN because we are passionate about providing female riders, and those who encourage them, the resources they need to be safe, informed, enthusiastic motorcyclists. We love to hear from you about how we're doing and what we can do to serve you even better. My email is below, and I would truly appreciate hearing from you.

Happy Holidays!

~ New Motorcycle Review ~

Indian FTR 1200 S

Race inspired motorcycle that breaks the classic Indian mold

Loaded with character, the V-twin FTR 1200 is built for days when you just want to get out and have a fun ride, even if the pavement ends along the way. Based on Indian's flat track racer, WRN's Sarah and Tricia test a couple of these sporty roadsters—one on each coast—and compare notes. Find out why they both love the FTR 1200 S so much that we aren't giving the keys back.

Jessi Combs Scholarship Winners

7 women to carry on the late fabricator's legacy

The late Jessi Combs was a trailblazer and a stereotype breaker driven to succeed while lifting people up, particularly women, throughout her career as a motorcyclist, racer, television personality, and master fabricator. After her untimely death in 2019, The Jessi Combs Foundation was formed and scholarships were put together. Now, just one year later, the board of directors is awarding seven women with a combined $30,000 worth of scholarships who are pursuing careers in the trades. Find out who they are and how they're carrying the late racer's legacy forward.
