

Since 1999, the #1 Motorcycling Resource for Women and the Men Who Ride With Them

November 5, 2020

A warm hello to our new and regular subscribers. This newsletter is our way of alerting you to recent stories posted on our website, WomenRidersNow.com (WRN).

During November there are more days that I choose not to ride because it's too cold or icy in my home state of Connecticut. That, coupled with the ongoing isolation from the COVID-19 pandemic has me missing socializing and having fun with friends more than ever. It's that time of year when it is too easy to hole up, become a hermit, and neglect relationships with friends and family. Are you feeling it, too?

If you are also missing your two-wheeled family, please join me this Friday and Saturday at the second Women's Motorcycling Online Conference led by WRN leadership board member Alisa Clickenger and her company, Women's Motorcycle Tours. I plan to be in front of my computer screen mingling with industry colleagues who I haven't seen in a while, as well as meeting lots of new women—hopefully, many of you!

The theme of this conference is “connection,” and my WRN colleagues Erin Sills, Sarah Schilke, and Maggie McNally will be joining me for a Saturday evening chat about connecting the world via motorcycles. We're each going to get a little personal about how motorcycling has created meaningful relationships in our lives and then will open it up to hear your stories. Read our preview of the Conference here where you'll find a link to see the full schedule at to register. Use code WRN at checkout to get 10% off the already low registration fee.

You'll also find other amazing deals splattered about this newsletter, like $100 off a MotoChic riding jacket and 20% off the adorable Mimi & Moto children's books. We encourage you to share these discounts with your friends and ask them to sign up to receive exclusive WRN discounts.
