and the Men Who Ride With Them

October 30, 2017

Welcome to the Women Riders Now October Newsletter!

Even though some of us are putting our bikes away for the winter, November is still full of exciting plans for our readers. First, there's our Autumn Accessories Contest—enter by November 5 to win some great prizes like a Go-Pro camera, $100 gift certificate to MotoChic and more.

On November 11, check out our first Facebook Live Show with WRN Assistant Editor Tricia Szulewski and Guest Editor Brittany Morrow as they talk about their serious motorcycle crashes and the conditions that caused them and show you the gear that protected them. You'll be able to send in your questions as they're talking. Details to follow.

On November 15, the Top Deals Buyers Guide comes out with great products and discounts for WRN readers.

In each newsletter, we want to thank the companies that advertise with us. It's our way of making sure you know who is committed to sharing their products and services with you. BMW Motorrad is the sponsor of the month. The G 310 R is lightweight, easy to handle, and its 313 cc engine offers a fun, spirited ride.
