

Since 1999, the #1 Motorcycling Resource for Women and Those Who Ride With Us

December 20, 2022

Happy Holidays! This newsletter is our way of sharing articles and news recently posted on WomenRidersNow.com (WRN).

'Tis the season of giving, and if you still have a few riders to shop for, we encourage you to check out WRN's Holiday Gift Guide which includes some special savings we've sourced for you, our beloved readers.

It's also the time of year to start planning for another year of great women's motorcycling events. As I look back on my most memorable rides such as last summer's epic Chix on 66 AMCA Riveter's ride of iconic Route 66, I'm excited about what this year may have in store.

We just received information about “Women’s Day” at Daytona Beach Bike Week and Harley-Davidson’s 120th anniversary party in July. My camping gear is always ready for another Babes Ride Out, and I’m wondering where I might ride on International Female Ride Day in May.

Keep checking back to our women’s events calendar because we are updating it regularly as more event info comes in. If you know of a women-specific motorcycling event or ride of a large scale, please let us know the details so we can alert our readers.

We will be hearing about more new 2023 motorcycles in the next couple of months, and will pass this info on to you. Have you made your future moto plans yet? Do they include a new bike purchase or special tour? I’d love to hear about it. Feel free to post about it on our Facebook page or send me your story and pictures to share at Tricia@WomenRidersNow.com.

The WRN staff is kicking around the idea of attending another Polaris Adventure in 2023. WRN’s Erin, Sarah, and Porsche can’t stop talking about how much fun they had on those snowmobiles last year. This year we are thinking about trying 4-wheelers, and when we finalize our plans, we’ll be sure to let you know so you can join us!

I wish you and yours a peaceful and joyous holiday. We love and appreciate you all for your support of women in motorcycling.

Ride safely and with love,
Tricia Szulewski | Editor, WomenRidersNow.com

AMCA Riveters Ride — Chix on 66

Lady riders traversing America's iconic roadway

"Chix on 66" is the name of the inaugural ride of the Antique Motorcycle Club of America's Riveter chapter. 30 women riding antique and modern motorcycles met up in Milwaukee at the Harley-Davidson Museum in June. From there, they rode from the starting point of Route 66 in Chicago, Illinois, for two hot-as-heck weeks traversing the old route all the way to California's Santa Monica Pier. Check out the highlights from this amazing bucket-list ride. READ MORE
