and Those Who Ride With Us

Hello new and regular subscribers! This newsletter is our way of sharing articles and news recently posted on WomenRidersNow.com (WRN).

I'm so ready for spring! It's that funny time of year when I ride to work in my warmest winter gear and pack up the electrics and layers for the ride home. We are still seeing snow where I live in Oregon, so I'm glad to begin to shed some of the winter gear and plan some warm weather rides.

Maybe you are pulling your favorite jacket out of the closet or searching to refresh your kit for the new season. If you are, check out some of our gear reviews and articles before you buy.

We are excited to announce WRN's latest collaboration with a new contributor, "Liz Gear," to bring you her gear survey. You can see the top-rated protective jackets and other results from more than 1,000 respondents so far. We are working with Liz to get enough responses to be able to recommend to you based not only on size, but also body type. Did you know women have one of ten body types? The survey will also be enhanced to include pants, gloves, and boots. We'd love to get your feedback, because, as Liz puts it, "women are our own best resource."

Ride safely and have fun!
