

Since 1999, the #1 Motorcycling Resource for Women and Those Who Ride With Us

July 22, 2023

Hello motorcycle friends. We hope you enjoy this newsletter, our way of sharing articles and news recently posted on WomenRidersNow.com (WRN).

With summer in full swing, many of my riding friends are out enjoying the open road. In my case, that road is often a dirt one. I recently toured the amazing pathways of the Colorado Backcountry Discovery Route. As a coach and guide for RawHyde, an off-road training and tour company, I have the opportunity to meet many wonderful women (and men) along the way.

WRN just published several great new articles about the latest in fashionable and functional motorcycle gear. I know from having recently packed for my two-week journey that choosing the proper gear is paramount to enjoying your time on the open road in preparation for whatever Mother Nature may throw at you.

Heading out for a group ride this summer with friends? Please share your photos with us via our Facebook and Instagram pages. We love to hear your stories!

Enjoy the journey,

Erin Sills, Co-Chairwoman | WomenRidersNow.com
