

Since 1999, the #1 Motorcycling Resource for Women and Those Who Ride With Us

August 23, 2023

Hello motorcycle friends. We hope you enjoy this newsletter, our way of sharing articles and news recently posted on WomenRidersNow.com (WRN).

“Hi Friends!” That is what I like to say sometimes when I encounter a group of motorcycle riders. Because we all are friends. Last weekend illustrious solo world traveling motorcyclist Carla King was in town so I invited her to a local moto themed coffeehouse. After a quick catch-up, I introduced Carla to some riding friends and teased some of her adventures including her book, American Borders. I was thrilled how the group of new and seasoned riders shared and swapped stories with Carla about all their inspirational adventures.

This is the wonderful community we are all a part of—instant friends (or sometimes rescuers) based on the shared love of experiencing life on two wheels. Even if our adventures are different, (I have no plans to race over 200+ mph like WRN Co-Chairwoman Erin Sills is currently doing), we still bond around similar motorcycling experiences or our curiosity of differing two wheel experiences.

Have you met a new friend through motorcycling lately? I hope you will reflect on the people you have made connections with through motorcycling, and share some of your connection stories and photos with us via our Facebook and Instagram pages. We love to hear and share your stories.

Have fun, stay safe,

Sarah Schilke, Co-Chairwoman | WomenRidersNow.com
