

Since 1999, the #1 Motorcycling Resource for Women and Those Who Ride With Us

April 8, 2024

Hello friends! This newsletter is our way of sharing articles and news recently posted on WomenRidersNow.com (WRN). Please forward this to your friends who want to be involved in our community and encourage them to subscribe so they can stay in the know too!

I just returned from a dual-sport/ADV rally in Death Valley where I was once again reminded of the uniting power of motorcycling. My longtime moto BFF Tigra and I enjoyed reuniting with each other while making new riding buddies and shared details of fun rides through historic gold mining ghost areas.

Experiencing the desert super bloom on two wheels is an awesome 'season opener' for dirtbiking. The weather is perfect in the desert this time of year. I'm also reminded of how much I love that motorcycling offers access to regions and people we might not otherwise get to explore.

I'm eagerly planning upcoming rides as well. The big one on my list is the WRN Ladies First tour in Spain/Portugal this fall, but I'll be adding plenty of other rides including International Female Ride Day, summer rides with the Litas women's motorcycle groups, and other regional events we list on the WRN calendar.

If you can't join us on the Ladies First ride, let us know what other fun riding events you have planned for the year. We love hearing from you. Remember to do your first pre-ride maintenance checks of the year.

Have a fun and safe riding season.
